The London Eye Mystery by Siobhan Dowd Was: €9.15 Now: €7.30

11.32 a.m. Ted and his sister, Kat, watch their cousin Salim board the London eye. The pod rises from the ground, high above the city.

12.02 p.m. the pod lands and the doors open. Everyone exits – everyone but Salim. Has he spontaneously combusted? (Ted's theory) Has he been kidnapped? (Aunt Gloria's theory) Is he even still alive? (The family's unspoken fear.) Even the police are baffled. So it's up to Ted, whose brain runs on its own unique operating system, to solve this mystery.

Oliver Cromwell: The Most Hated Man in Irish History by Rod Smith

Was: €8.99 Now: €7.20

Liam O'Malley is on his way to a school history trip, to re-enact Cromwell's 1649 siege of Drogheda. Without warning, he ends up in 1649 for real – just as Cromwell and his army have breached the walls of the town! With the help of a mysterious girl called Aoife and a horse called Ferdia, he manages to escape the slaughter. Liam and Aoife then set out to travel around Ireland, to warn other towns about the dangers of Cromwell and his New Model Army.

Arrivals by Brian Gallagher Was: €8.99 Now: €7.20

When Teenager Ciara Farrelly visits her dead grandfather's Ontario home. She uncovers a secret from his childhood. Back in 1928, twelve-year-old Mike Farrelly made friends with Wilson, a lonely, rich boy whose family had emigrated from Ireland, and Lucy, a feisty Ojibwe girl from a local reserve. The three spend the bright, warm summer holidays having adventures together. But then a murder was committed, and Mike, Wilson and Lucy found themselves in danger. Suddenly, they had to trust each other, not only with their secrets, but with their lives.

Alone on a Wide Wide Sea by Michael Morpurgo Was: €9.15 Now: €7.30

There were dozens of us on the ship, boys and girls. We were off to Australia but it might as well have been the moon.

Orphaned in WWII, Arthur is separated from his sister and sent to the other side of the world. There his extraordinary journey continues as he and his friend Marty survive brutal captivity on a working farm, find a new family with eccentric Aunt Meg and her animals and discover their talent for designing yachts. Sixty years later, Arthur's daughter Allie sets sail single-handed in a yacht designed by her father, determined to find his long-lost sister in England.
